

DangerSpot Books

Catalogue

Children's picture books, with safety stickers, helping to prevent accidents within the home and elsewhere.

The DangerSpot stories tell of Harey, the hare-brained rabbit, who is always rushing around causing and having accidents. While Chips, the dog, is often the victim of Harey's carelessness Scampi, the cat, tries her best to help with advice and Pillow, the parrot, always repeats the message.

The books include an information sheet and DangerSpot stickers, (except “Stranger Dangers”), to invite parents and children to place them around the home to identify any danger spots. In this way the books portray accidents and dangers to children in an amusing and, therefore, acceptable fashion whilst teaching the more serious aspects of these issues. The main point about the stickers is that it is very difficult to teach young children about all the dangers around the home. By appreciating that a DangerSpot sticker means "danger, don't touch!" a child has then only to learn one thing - not to go near, or be careful.

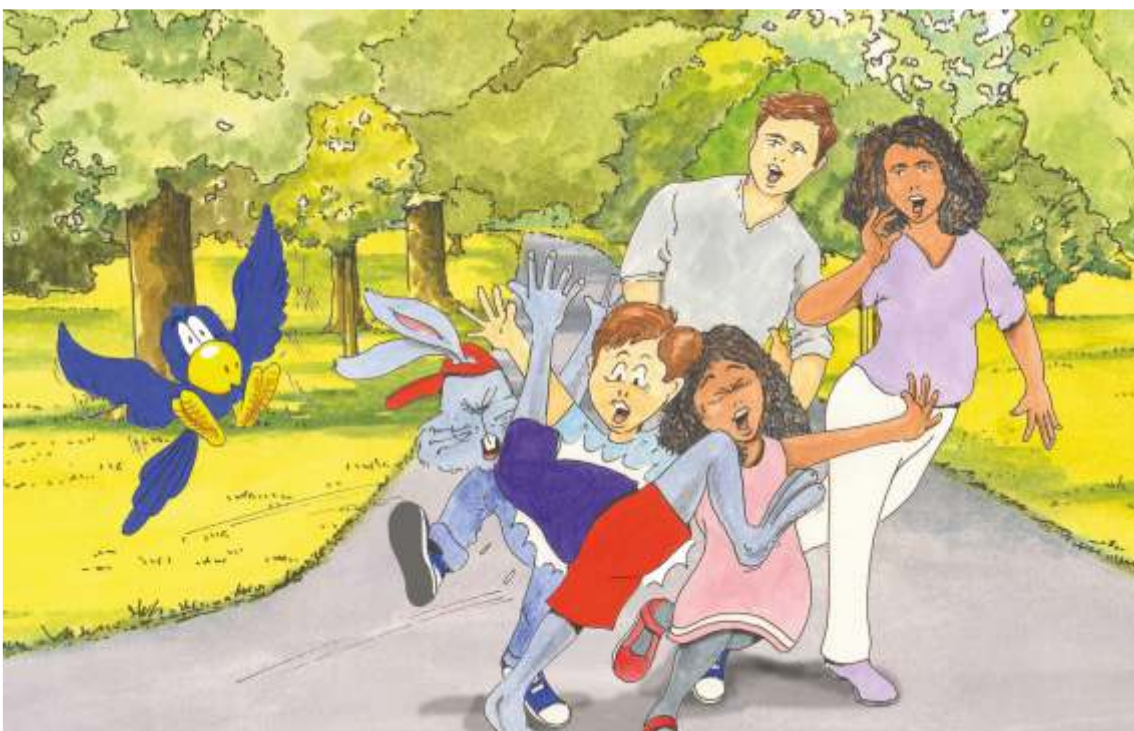

A Touch Too Much

32 pages
full colour 210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-1-908352-23-1

Commissioned by Fresh Start- New Beginnings. Harey and his friends bump into two children and are invited to a party. It is there that they witness and put a stop to sexual abuse and a stranger trying to take photographs of the children in the local park swimming pool.

The Harey Chat Room

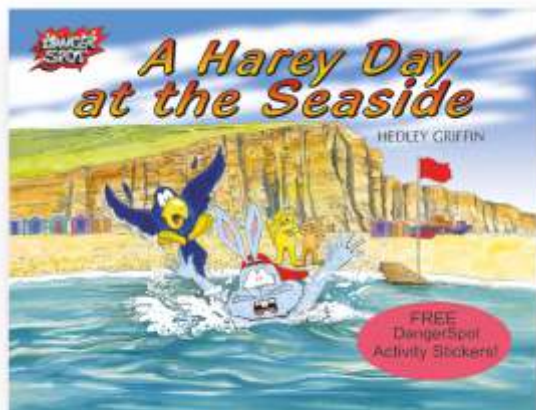

32 pages
full colour 210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-1-908352-20-0

Harey, The hare-brained rabbit is typing a letter in a chat room, while his friends look on. 'That's great! Lucy Lamb wants to be my friend and write to me,' yelled Harey in excitement. Next day, they go out to meet Lucy Lamb in the park and discover a wolf in sheep's clothing.

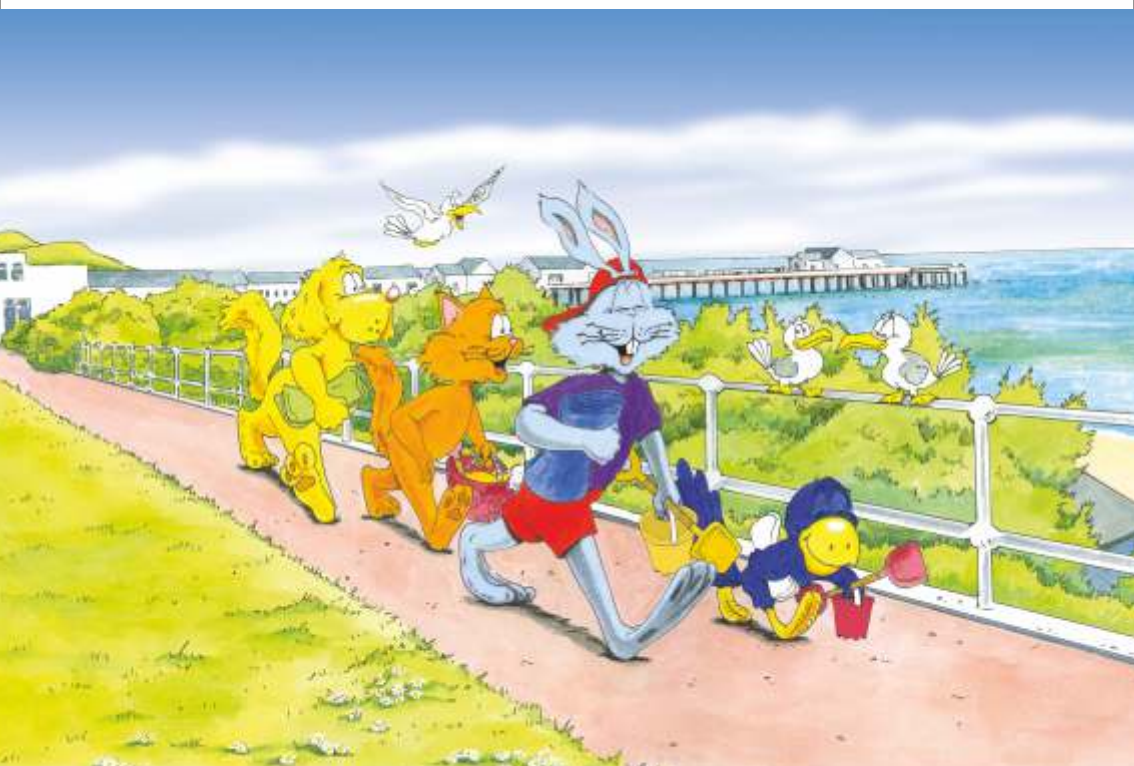

A Harey Day at the Seaside

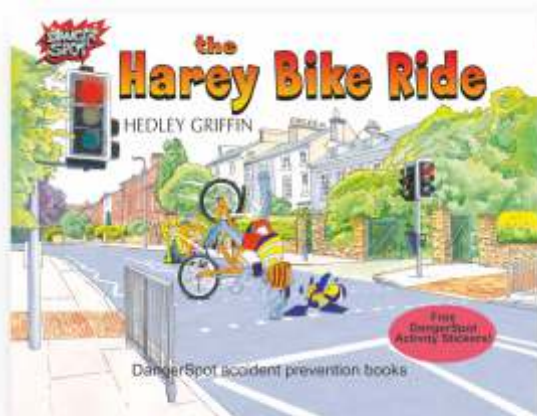

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-1-908352-14-1

Harey and his friends visit the seaside. He climbs the cliff and falls, cuts his feet on some broken glass, digs a big cave in the sand and almost suffocates when the sides fall in, goes swimming out of his depth while ignoring the warning flags and nearly drowns.

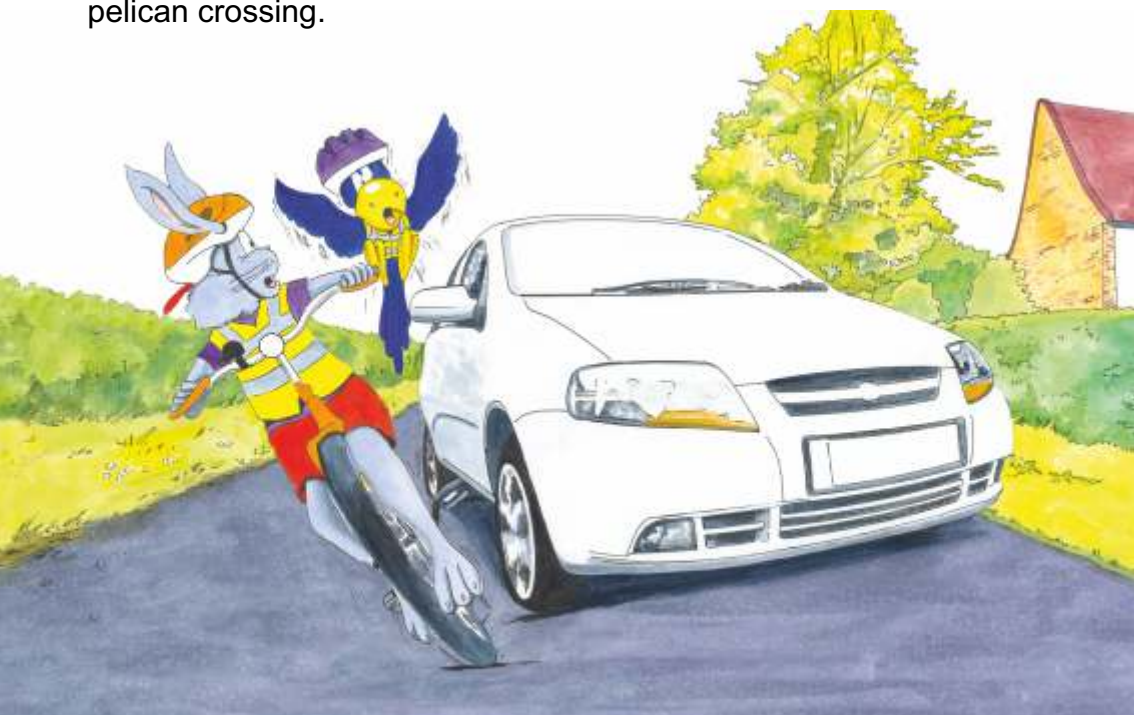

The Harey Bike Ride

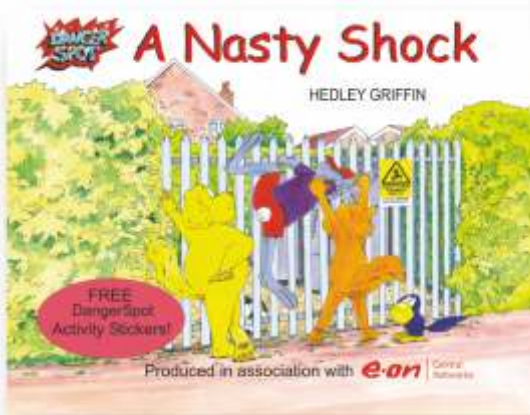

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9565593-0-2

Harey, the hare-brained rabbit, and his friends go riding their cycles, but he does not obey the highway code. He has to be persuaded to wear his cycle helmet after he has fallen off his bike and banged his head. He then rides out of the drive onto the road without looking where he is going, rides on the pavement and fails to stop at red traffic lights where he knocks down Pillow the parrot on the pelican crossing.

A Nasty Shock

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-9-1

Harey puts his screwdriver into an electricity plug socket and gets a nasty shock. During breakfast he sticks a knife into the toaster to retrieve his toast and gets another shock, but then receives a third one when he fills up the kettle and plugs it into the mains with wet hands. Finally, whilst playing football in the garden, Harey kicks the ball over the hedge into an electrical substation and tries to retrieve the ball.

The Deadly Sweet Cupboard

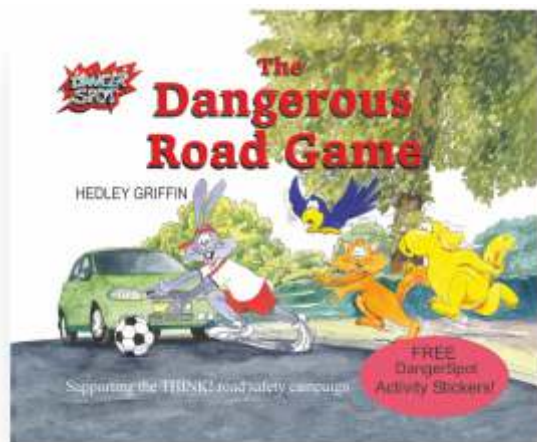

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-0-8

One wet, windy, winter's morning Harey decides to have a party because it is his birthday. Having been given some pot-pourri as a present he tries to drink the essential oil but Scampi saves him just in time, knocks over a candle and causes a fire, goes to use some plastic washing capsules for eating as jellies and swallows some "sweets" he finds in the medicine cabinet in the bathroom.

The Dangerous Road Game

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-4-6

Supporting the THINK! road safety campaign and including the Green Cross Code information.

Harey dreams of being the best football player in the world. He races out of the house, falls over a cartoon snail and walks into a lamp-post. He and his friends then cross over the road to play in the park. Harey kicks the ball into the road.

He then runs after it without looking and is knocked down by a car, but just survives with bad bruising because the car was not travelling fast.

The Dangerously Big Bunny

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-7-7

Harey, the hare-brained rabbit, watches TV all day and eats all the wrong foods. He becomes unhealthy and overweight.

He has trouble getting through doorways, too overweight to play on the swings, breaks his skateboard, and sinks the boat in the park. His doctor puts him on a diet.

He cuts down on eating biscuits, sweets, chocolate toffee bars, cakes and ice-cream, joins a gym and watches less television.

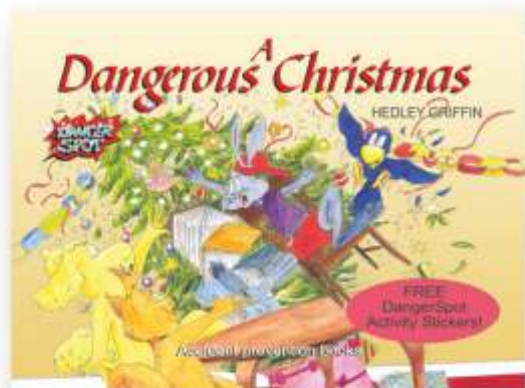

He is soon back to his old fit self.

'Who's a pretty boy, then?' says his friend, Pillow the parrot.

also available as a DVD

A Dangerous Christmas

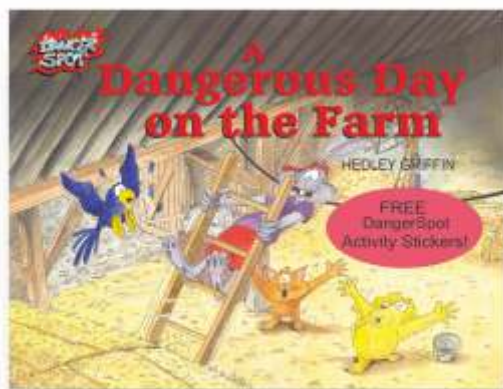

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-6-0

Harey and his friends have a dangerous Christmas when he tries to climb on the furniture to place a fairy on top of the tree, gets an electrical shock playing with the fairy lights, sets fire to the Christmas tree, and ends up scalding himself in the kitchen while rushing around.

A Dangerous Day on the Farm

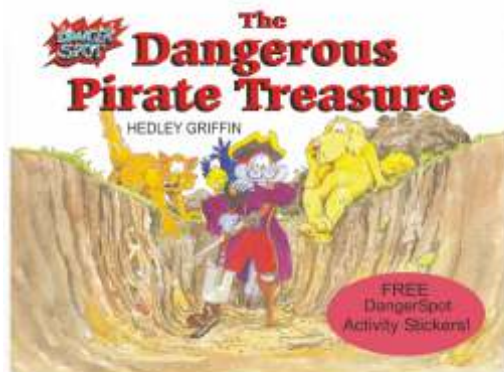

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-5-3

Harey, the hare-brained rabbit, and his friends visit a farm.
Several accidents and misadventures later Harey eventually climbs into a grain silo and has to be rescued by the Fire Brigade.

The Dangerous Pirate Treasure

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-3-9

Harey the rabbit and his friends go looking for treasure after finding an old map in the loft, but dig up an electricity cable instead.

Fire in the Fryer

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978- 0-9546565-2-2

Harey the rabbit decides to deep-fry some chips for a barbecue. He fills the fryer too much and abandons it while he goes off to play, with near fatal consequences.

The Hair-Raising Kite Flight

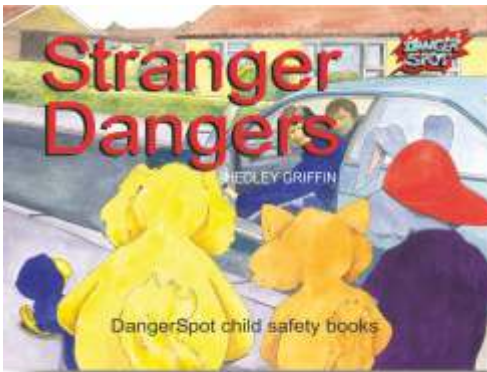

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-1-5

Harey and his friends, go out flying their kite dangerously close to an electricity pylon.

Stranger Dangers

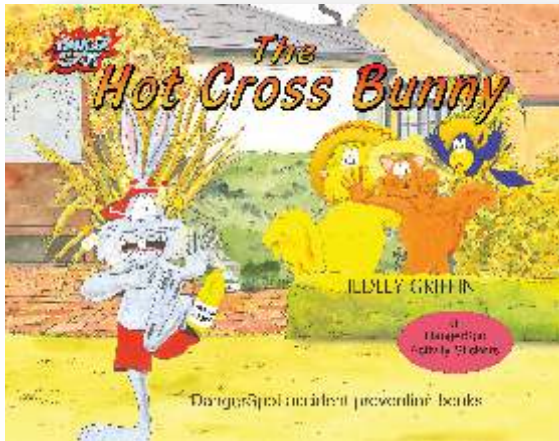

32 pages
no stickers
full colour 210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-0-9546565-8-4

It is the day of Halloween and Harey, the hare-brained rabbit, and his friends go playing and looking for ghosts in a disused factory building with dangerous results. They are approached several times during the day by a strange man and woman. That night, they dress up and go out knocking on people's doors, when Harey is finally kidnapped by the two strangers, but rescued in the end.

The Hot Cross Bunny

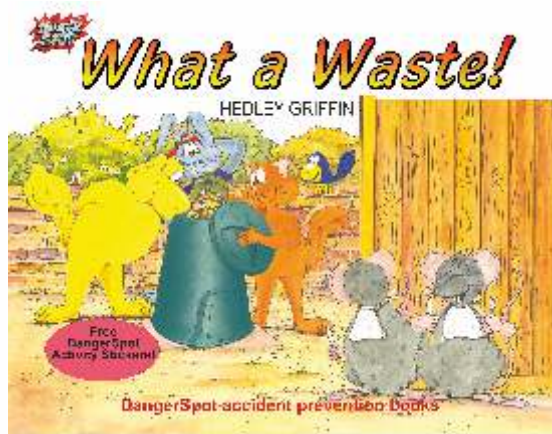

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-1-908352-24-8

During a heat wave Harey, the hare-brained rabbit, and his friends are so hot, he goes into the pond to cool off and gets stuck in the mud. He then falls asleep and gets badly sunburnt because he refused to wear sun cream. Running towards the house for a drink he rushes along the garden path and trips over. Rubbing his bruises he looks in the fridge for a drink.

There is nothing there. He then looks under the sink in the cupboard and finds a bottle of bleach, which he drinks and burns his throat as well.

What a Waste!

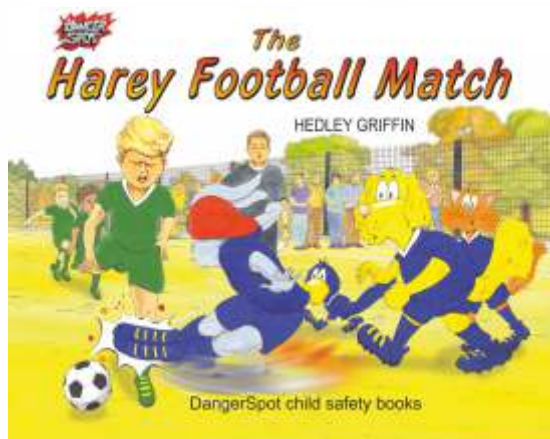

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-1-908352-25-5

Harey, the hare-brained rabbit, is always rushing around and hurting himself, especially when dangerous objects are left as litter. He and his friends learn to tidy up and use waste in a sensible manner for compost, recycling and other uses.

The Harey Football Match

32 pages
plus page of safety stickers
full colour
210 x 260 mm
paperback
ISBN 978-1-908352-26-2

It was Sports Day at the local school and Harey, the crazy hare-brained rabbit, and his friends, Pillow the parrot, Scampi the cat and Chips the dog decided to play in the football match. During the match Harey plays dangerously and is sent off but Pillow saves the day and scores the winning goal.

Written and illustrated by Hedley Griffin

Our ebooks are published by Andrews UK

Child Accident Awareness

DangerSpot Books

Moat House, Banyards Green, Laxfield, Suffolk. IP13 8ER.

Tel: +44 (0) 7579025580 email: admin@dangerspot.co.uk

www.dangerspot.co.uk